Message: The Value of Youth to the Cause of God

Which is the most difficult era of human life? Infancy? Adolescence? Mature adulthood? Agedness? It probably depends upon where you are as to how you might answer that query. While many might suggest that one's sunset years are the hardest, my own judgment would be that the period designated as youth might be the most challenging. Youth is a frustrating time in life. It is that period when one is hardly old enough to be on his own, and yet he is feeling a sense of independence.

Examples:

Joseph; Acts 7:9, Gen. 39:9, Gen. 45:5

David; 1 Sam. 17:10-16, 1 Sam. 17:33, 42

Josiah; 2 Kgs. 23:25, 2 Chron. 34:1-3, 2 Kgs. 23:21-23

Youth can accomplish magnificent things for the God's cause. But do we always recognize this? We must be on the lookout for them and encourage them along the way. God can use them mightily
