Message: Faith to Conquer

Hebrews 11:30-31

Faith and obedience are inseparable, just as unbelief and disobedience go together. Genuine faith always obeys God. Faith is not some magical force. Rather, faith links us with the unseen God, who spoke the universe into existence. Faith is the channel through which God's blessings flow to us. God conquers our powerful enemies by faith and converts hopeless sinners by faith.

1. God conquers our powerful enemies by faith (11:30).

- A. Salvation brings us into conflict with powerful enemies.
- B. God's way of victory over these enemies shows His power and our weakness.
- C. Faith must obey God implicitly.
 - (1) To obey God, we must know what His Word says about our situation.
 - (2) Knowledge of God's Word must be followed by obedience, no matter how much it goes against conventional wisdom.
- D. Faith must wait upon God.
- E. Faith must wait on God expectantly.

2. God converts hopeless sinners by faith (11:31).

- A. Rahab was an unlikely candidate for salvation.
- B. Rahab's faith saved her from perishing.
- C. Rahab's faith separated her from her disobedient contemporaries.
- D. Rahab's faith was an obedient faith.
- E. Rahab's faith resulted in the salvation of her pagan family.
- F. Rahab's faith brought her into covenant with God and His people.
- G. Rahab's faith changed her life.
