

JESUS, THE SON OF SORROWS

Matthew 26:36-46

Jesus' ministry began and ended with severe temptations. In Matthew 4, at the beginning of Christ's ministry, Satan tempted Him after He had fasted forty days in the wilderness with 3 waves of temptations. In like manner Jesus faces 3 waves of temptation in Matthew 26:36-46. Satan attacked Him at the beginning and end of His ministry, and Jesus was victorious on both occasions. Both temptations were personal and private solicitations to evil by Satan. In the first, Jesus answered each temptation with Scripture. Throughout the second, Jesus responded to each temptation with prayer. Jesus the Son of God is a Son in Sorrow.

God is in the business of giving grace to sinners, and restoring the fallen believers. He is not interested in the death of any sinner but that all should come to repentance.
