

The Lord's Calling to Himself

Text: John 1:43-45

Where were you when you were called by the Lord, and how did you answer or are you answering the call? The Bible tells us that when Jesus started His ministry, He called His disciples and the Bible tells us about where most of the disciples where and what they were doing before the call from Jesus. They let go everything they were doing and immediately responded to the call to follow Jesus our Lord. As soon as most of them found the Lord they invited their friends and brothers to also know the Lord. A typical example is Philip.

1. We are the disciples of Jesus – we have been given the responsibility to teach and speak the world of God
2. We are the salt of the world – the world must see this in us
3. If God's purpose concerning us will come to pass, we will have to act
4. We must take advantage of the opportunities God has given us
5. We should spend more time in prayer and studying the Word of God
6. We are admonished to invest everything into our spiritual lives
