Message: No Curse for New Creatures

Galatians 3:13-18

There are two extremes in life. We have a beginning and an end, light and darkness, life and death, heaven and hell, blessing and curse. One cannot live in light and in darkness, one cannot be alive and dead, no one will be in heaven and be in hell at the same. The same way, one cannot live in blessing and be cursed at the same time. New creatures are the people that have come to the Lord Jesus for salvation, from an old life to a new life; they have turned their hearts from darkness into light. The grace of God has come upon new creatures and heaven is brought into their lives. There is no more curse for them but a blessing.

I. THE SOURCES AND NATURE OF A CURSE

- (a) The Curse From God from breaking His Law, Genesis 3:14-19
- (b) The Curse From Balak and Balaam, Numbers 22:1-6; Deut. 23:4-5
- (c) The Curse in Families as a result of an act of abomination, Genesis 49:1-4

II. DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A CURSE AND A CONSEQUENCE

Not every hardship, struggle, or problem is a curse. There is difference between curse and consequence. Every action and reaction has consequences which could be good or bad. God has established an enmity between Satan and the seed of the woman. What Satan, demons, and evil people on earth do also bring suffering and afflictions into human life.

III. NEW CREATURES POSITION IN CHRIST

1. The Revelation of our Consequences, Galatians 2:20; Proverbs 26:2
2. The Redemption from Curses. Gal. 3:13,14
3. The Release of Blessings upon New Creatures in Christ. Deut 28:1-14; Isaiah 43:18,19
